The Talon Companies was founded in 1994 by retired United States Secret Service Agent Ronald T. Williams. Talon began as a specialized professional protective services and security consulting firm, for corporations and executives. Since that time, Talon has grown to encompass four distinct yet complementary entities, each providing a specialized group of services designed to meet the ever-increasing needs of its client base.

Protecting Your Rights

Together the four Talon Companies cover the entire spectrum of professional security solutions to risks and threats faced by both the public and private sectors in the 21st. Century. These four highly specialized entities comprising the Talon Companies, offer a comprehensive suite of complementary pro-active and responsive security services, all delivered to the client through a synchronized, single source professional security service.

OUR MISSION IS TO STAND FOR TRUTH AND SEEK JUSTICE

By special Invitation, Ron Williams has appeared on local and national television stations, addressing facts, statistics and key methods of risk and crime prevention for a variety of security-related issues and terrorism facing many private individuals, businesses and corporations alike.
